I has always liked to doodle since I was a kid, the difference being that now my doodles are animation. Involved in various art competitions and determined to become a artist. Set on a path of self-discovery which led me to ultimately discover my talents in filming and animating. Especially family entertainment always sparking my curiosity in animation.

I am believes strongly in teamwork and communication, always keen in improvement, self-motivated, flexible work attitude. These discoveries shaped me into what I am today, fresh and new, where I awaits an opportunity-filled future.

"The great secret of success in life is for a man to be ready when his opportunity comes."

— Benjamin Disraeli
